Local News.

Winter weather.
Additional local on last page.
Only four weeks till Christmas.
A cold wave of extensive proportions struck Nemaha Thursday.

Mr. Kinney, the photographer, has moved into the old ADVERTISER headquarters.

Chas. T. Minick has been appointed agent at Bracken. He assumed his duties Tuesday.

The Methodist and Christian Sunday schools are making arrangements for Christmas trees.

Robert S. Baker has bought a small tract of land near Barada, and has moved on it with his parents.

Mrs. A. L. Jarvis and children went to Wabash, Neb., Tuesday, to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Jarvis' parents.

Geo. E. Dye has moved to Auburn in order that his children may have the advantage of the excellent schools of that burg.

The depot has been decorated with a new coat of paint inside and out, which wonderfully improves the appearance of the building.

Mrs. M. A. Woodward returned home Friday night of last week from Kansas City, where she had been visiting friends for three weeks.

Charley Minick came over from Table Rock Monday and visited friends until the next day, when he went to Bracken to take charge of that station.

The contest over the will of Everett Larimore is in a fair way of being settled without a lawsuit. The friends of both parties are very desirous that this be done.

Mrs. L. L. Hulburd, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G.
W. Fairbrother, of Brownville, for several weeks, started for her home at Waco, Texas, Monday.

Hannibal Bennett, of Nemaha, and Miss Belle Slagle, of Shubert, were married last week. The happy couple have the best wishes of THE ADVERTISER for a long life of happiness together.

Two or three efforts were made this week to burn out part of the business portion of Auburn, on the north side, but the blaze was discovered each time and extinguished before much damage was done.

A "special" passed over this portion of the B. & M. last Saturday forenoon.
C. E. Perkins, president of the C., B. & Q., and other prominent officials were on board. They were bound for Denver and Cheyenne.

Miss Veva Clark returned home Wednesday, after an absence of three months in Pennsylvania, visiting her uncle, J. P. S. Clark, and other relatives. Miss Veva is one of our most popular young ladies, and everybody is glad to see her again.

Rev. Geo. M. Gates, of Peru, visited the great Yellowstone Park in July, spending about two weeks in this wonderland. He has prepared a lecture giving a description of the beauties and grandeur of this great park, and is delivering the lecture at a number of places. It is said to be very fine.

Some people foolishly imagine, or seem to, that because they tell a newspaper editor not to put their names in the paper, that he must necessarily refrain from so doing. If this were so hardly a criminal in the United States would be given a notice, as each one would notify the newspapers not to mention his or her name. As far as we are concerned, we expect to treat all alike, regardless of such "notices" as we occasionally receive.

Removal of the Advertiser

THE ADVERTISER office has been moved into the building recently purchased from S. H. Avey, just north of the hardware store. Call in and see us in our new location, pay a year's subscription in advance, and thus assist us in paying for the building.

DIME SOCIABLE.

The Methodist Sunday school will give a dime sociable at the Minick hall Friday night of next week, for the purpose of raising money to buy presents for the children on Christmas.
Everybody is invited.

Miss May Swan, who is attending the Normal school at Peru, came home for Thanksgiving.

Miss Kate Frost came down from Peru Wednesday evening, to be at home Thanksgiving.

Harry McCandless has bought a "three wheeler," and now makes quick trips from the Siding to the Nemaha depot.

Miss Lulu and John Buchenan, who are attending the Normal school at Peru, came down to Nemaha Wednesday, to spend Thanksgiving.

Mrs. John R. Maddox and children, of Auburn, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Crother from Wednesday afternoon until Friday forenoon.

The telephone line from the Nemaha depot to the McCandless Siding is now in operation, and Harry feels that he is in communication with the world. It is a great convenience and will save him many trips.

Mrs. Fairking, mother of James W.
Wolfe and R. J. Tussay, died at the residence of the latter gentleman, at Hillsdale, Thursday of this week. The funeral services were held Friday.
Further particulars will be given next week.

Sam Anderson thinks the members of his family have had more than their share of sickness this fall. His wife and children have been sick with fever for weeks. They would get better and then suffer a relapse, but Sam is in hopes they are on the road to permanent recovery.

S. Gilbert was taken with terrible pains in his bowels Wednesday night, and suffered excruciating pain for many hours, although everything possible was done for his relief by the physicians. At the time of going to press he is resting comparatively easy.
Mr. Gilbert has had these attacks before but this is the worst one he has ever experienced.

Rev. Geo. M. Gates, pastor of the M.
E. church at Peru, has recently started a religious monthly called the Evans-gelist. The first number was very interesting as well as instructive. Bro.
Gates was a newspaper man before he entered the ministry, having published the Tribune at Stella for some time.
He is also a lawyer, having been admitted to the bar and practicing law for awhile at Stella.

WOOD AND CORN.

We wish all our delinquent subscribers who can furnish us wood or corn would bring the same in at once, as we need it. Either old or new corn will be taken.

FOR RENT.—A house of five room in one of the most desirable locations in Nemaha. House is in good repair.
A good barn on property. Apply at this office.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding.
Quick time. All trains met. John McElhaney, proprietor.

Miss Harris, "the milliner," South Auburn.

Ripans Tabules cure nausea.

Dr. J. L. Melvin.

Office at residence, south of Minick store building.

John Simpson, of this city, has been appointed to the responsible position of bond clerk in the state auditor's office by Auditor-elect John Cornell, of Richardson county. Mr. Simpson is well qualified for the position and his appointment is a well deserving one.
C. C. Pool, of Verdon, will be Mr. Cor-nell's deputy.—Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Berger and Miss Nellie Sanders went to Brownville Wednesday afternoon and spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Russell. The remainder of the editorial family expected to drive up Thursday morning and help eat Thanksgiving turkey, but on account of the storm were disappointed.

The postoffice fight is raging at Auburn, Brownville and Peru. At Auburn W. P. Freeman and Dr. McGrew are the chief aspirants for the north side office, but a half dozen other fellows would like to have it. G. W.
Fairbrother, sr., and H. T. Sanders are both after the office at Brownville, and the present official, Miss Alice Mooney, is circulating a petition for reappointment. At Peru there are several aspirants: At Nemaha all is quiet, as the patrons generally are well pleased with the present efficient postmistress, Miss Maud Minick, and no change is desired.

The Johnson County Journal nominates Hon. J. H. Dundas for president of the state senate; since the pops have control of the whole business more than unanimously, it is probably not our put in, but we heartily second the nomination because we know there is not a better pop elected to the legislature. John is honest and wants to do something good for the people and there is no position in the senate where he will have a better chance.—Sterling Sun.

THE ADVERTISER endorses the above, and hopes John will be successful. He represents the best element of the opposition in this county, and as such is opposed by a number of would-be leaders in his own party—G.
W. Cornell, Bill Daily, et al.—but to their surprise as well as his own, probably, he was elected, and now we hope he will get the best there is to be had in the senate.

DISTRICT COURT.

Only a few cases were disposed of in district court this week. The court convened Monday but as there were no jury cases ready an adjournment was taken to Tuesday morning. When court convened Tuesday morning and there were still no jury cases ready, Judge Stull excused the jury until Monday morning.

Several motions were then argued and a little legal skirmishing in several cases indulged in by lawyers.

Mrs. Mattie L. Smith, of this city, was granted a divorce and custody of her minor children from her truant husband, Thomas J. Smith.

In the case of H. J. Haams vs. F.
H. Freytag, J. H. Kuhlmann and John Frerichs, petition on promissory note, jury was waived and trial was had to the court. After hearing the evidence in the case the judge decided in favor of plaintiff, Harms, and against defendants Freytag and Kuhlmann, in the sum of $1,029. He also found in favor of defendant Frerichs, law of limitation having expired.

The case of same plaintiff against F.
H. Freytag, D. Oestmann and Fred Schlange, upon another note, then went to trial and was concluded Tuesday evening. Judge Stull took it under advisement and will render a decision before the court adjourns.

Kemp Colerick, for shooting Rabe Elliott at Nemaha City several months ago, was arraigned Tuesday morning and plead not guilty. He was held to the court for trial.

Court adjourned Wednesday morning until Monday next, when it is understood Judge Letton will be here and will preside until the end of the present term.—Herald.

FINE THOROUGHBRED PIGS.

I have for sale fine thoroughbred Poland China and Duroc Jersey male pigs for sale. My hogs are choice and well bred, from the finest prize winning stock in the world. Choice of pigs, $10 each. Call and inspect stock.
J. H. SKID.

The farm of I. J. Redfield near Brownville, better known as the Fur-nas farm was sold recently to a Mr.
Morrison, brother-in-law of Rev.
Strong. The consideration was $10,000.
Mr. Redfield took in part payment some Kansas land.—Herald.

Father Fitzgerald left Monday last for Dubuque, Iowa, where arguments are heard this week before the Metropolitan Curia of Dubuque in the celebrated case of Bishop Bonacum vs.
Fathers Fitzgerald and Murphy. It is expected that a decision will be reached the latter part of the week.
Father Fitzgerald received a transcript of the case last week. The same takes up 131 pages of closely typewritten pages. A decision is eagerly looked for on both sides and it is hoped the present trial will end the case, and that peace in Catholic circles will again be restored.—Herald.

C. Shuck, proprietor of the Nemaha Valley Berkshire farm, won the following premiums on his hogs at the Auburn and Salem fairs:

At Auburn he got first premium on boar, sweepstakes over everything on boar, and sweepstakes over everything on sow and pigs.

At Salem Mr. Shuck got first premium on boar, sweepstakes over everything on sow and pigs, first premium on yearling sow, second premium on sow, first premium on pig seven months old, second premium on pig five months old, and second premium on boar pig.

As Mr. Shuck had but few hogs on exhibition the showing is a remarkably good one.

RELIEVED OF TERRIBLE PAINS

R. E. Morse, traveling salesman, Galveston, Texas, says: Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me of Rheumatism of three months standing after use of two bottles. J. S. Doan, Danville, Ill., says I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment for years and would not be without it. J. R. Groch, Rio, Ill., says Ballard's Snow Liniment cured terrible pains in back of head and neck when nothing else would.
Every bottle guaranteed. Price 50 cents. Sold by Taylor the druggist.

Since 1878 there have been nine epidemics of dysentery in different parts of the country in which Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used with perfect success. Dye-ntery, when epidemic, is almost as severe and dangerous as Asiatic cholera.
Heretofore the best efforts of the most skilled physicians have failed to check its ravages, this remedy, however, has cured the most malignant cases, both of children and adults, and under the most trying conditions, which proves it to be the best medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by Taylor the druggist.

YOUR HAIR CAN BE SAVED
